The Participants undertake not to challenge the admissibility, validity or probative value of the aforementioned physical elements or computerized or electronic formats, based on any legal provision whatsoever specifying that certain documents must be written or signed by the parties in order to constitute proof.

As a result, those elements will constitute proof and, if produced by the Organizing Company as evidence in any litigious or other proceedings, they will be admissible, valid and enforceable between the parties in the same way, under the same conditions and with the same probative value of any document established, received or retained in writing.

The Organizing Company will not be held responsible for any problems on the Internet that might preclude the normal course of the Contest, particularly due to external malicious acts.

Nor will the Organizing Company be held responsible if one or several Participants should be unable to connect to the website due to any technical faults or any problem linked in particular to congestion on the network.
